Recording the report on the work done under the — during the year 1912-1913.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. C. M. SCHMIDT, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

To—the Chief Secretary to Government.

Dated—Camp, Pugalur, the 29th August 1913.

No.—G. 185.

I have the honour to submit the following note on the working of my department during the year 1912–1913. The comparison of figures are with those of 1911–1912 unless otherwise expressly stated.

2. Births and Deaths.—At the close of the year there were 1,049 Registrars of Births and Deaths as against 1,069 at its commencement, the decrease occurring amongst officers other than those of the Registration Department who hold these appointments ex-officio. The number of Registrars who performed operations under the Act was 30 as against 38.

3. The registrations of births and deaths declined from 144 and 44 to 103 and 34, respectively.

4. As stated in paragraph 2 of my note for 1911–1912 (G.O. No. 1358, Public, 6th November 1912), the rules under the Births, Deaths and Marriages (Amendment) Act, 1911, prescribing the evidence of identity to be furnished by an informant who gives written notice of a birth or death but who does not appear in person before a Registrar, came into force during the year (Notification 285, Public, 9th May 1912). Advantage was taken of the concession in 21 cases.

5. I was furnished by municipalities, under G.O. No. 1359 M., dated the 29th August 1910, with 131 counterfoils of entries of births and 56 of deaths against 55 and 67, and of these the Corporation of Madras was responsible for 40 under births and 30 under deaths against 43 and 58, respectively. These still form a small proportion of the total numbers of births and deaths registered under local laws in the municipalities in the Presidency, which according to statistics obtained from the Sanitary Commissioner stood as shown in the annexed table.

In the case of the Corporation of Madras it has, however, been explained by the President that the separate reports of births and deaths among European and Eurasian British subjects occurring in hospitals were not until quite recently submitted in the special forms prescribed by G.Os. Nos. 1850–51 M., dated the 18th November 1910 and that instructions have since been issued in the matter—vide G.O. Mis. No. 922 M., dated 7th May 1913. This may account for a portion of the discrepancies.

6. No certificates of entries of births or deaths registered under the Madras Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1899, were received.

7. Marriages.—The number of Marriage Registrars holding appointments under sections 7 and 8 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, rose from 55 to 57 and that of persons licensed under sections 6 and 9 to solemnize marriages from 714 to 747. The number of marriages of European Christians solemnized decreased from 420 to 406 and of Indian Christians from 10,801 to 8,821.

8. Eight marriages, against five, were reported under the Special Marriage Act, 1872.

9. One marriage was registered under the Parsee Marriage and Divorce Act, 1865, the first since 1906–1907 when two were registered.

10. Baptisms and Burials.—The total number of baptisms and burials for which returns were received in my office was 1,512 and 905 against 1,637 and 1,116, respectively.

11. Financial.—The fees collected rose from Rs. 265–12–0 to Rs. 324–9–6, the increase occurring mainly in those realised in my office for searches and copies under Ecclesiastical rules and in those remitted by official Marriage Registrars. The expenditure also increased from Rs. 1,475 to Rs. 1,559 owing to the grant of leave to a clerk and to an increase under printing and binding consequent on the rebinding of a large number of the old registers.

12. General.—One acting appointment of Registrar of Births and Deaths was made under section 17 of Act VI of 1886.

13. The departmental accounts have been compared with the statements received from the Accountant-General and found to agree.

14. The inventory of valuable stock has been checked and found to be correct.

15. The service books of the establishment have been verified up to the 31st March 1913.

The expenditure also increased from Rs. 1,475 to Rs. 1,559 owing to the grant of leave to a clerk and to an increase under printing and binding consequent on the rebinding of a large number of the old registers.

12. General.—One acting appointment of Registrar of Births and Deaths was made under section 17 of Act VI of 1886.

13. The departmental accounts have been compared with the statements received from the Accountant-General and found to agree.

14. The inventory of valuable stock has been checked and found to be correct.

15. The service books of the establishment have been verified up to the 31st March 1913.
